Look and Learn : Guaged Tile

My take away: This is a beautiful product and can be used in multiple wall and floor applications. It is very important to not only choose the correct product but work with an experienced installer that protect your project from product waste. This is a new category in A+D Lookup. It has been populated with 11 companies standing ready to help. A quick education on standards and selecting product was provided by Meridith of Crossville and Leo of Neolith. Both came to my questions with a teaching heart. And I am confident if you called they would walk you through the steps to the right product for your project.

Please reach out to Meridith or Leo with any questions!

New Product Alert : Agile Fabrics

Agile Fabrics was created in 2019 to improve the distribution of woven and coated fabrics that exceed industry standards for the commercial design market. Agile offers a vast array of colors that are puncture proof and bleach cleanable.

Mary is Ready for Adoption!

She is a feral cat, I have worked with her colony for 3 years now. There are three cats remaining. Mary has proved she is a sweetheart ready for a home. I can pick her up. I feed her everyday. When I am late she meets me at the car with chatter to say ,” what the heck I am ready for a back rub.” She loves her neck and back rubbed. She is ready for a forever home, at the very least a foster. I will pay for her medicals. I have had her spayed. She just needs a roof over her head.

About Us + Our Services
